

UKRAINE STATEMENT MARCH 2022

We write with regard to the serious events unfolding in Ukraine and the growing humanitarian crisis.

OpenView Security Solutions Ltd (“OpenView”) is an apolitical company, however we are united with the majority of the world in standing up against all forms of aggression and bullying, particularly that which is on display in the Ukraine.

We will continue to support any actions designed to de-escalate this crisis and support the people affected.

OpenView offers our deepest condolences to all those affected by these tragic circumstances, including the residents of Ukraine and multinational families residing in Ukraine.

We can confirm that we have never knowingly traded with any Russian or Belarusian businesses. This stance will continue.

We take this opportunity to affirm that OpenView has no known relationships with the Russian government or with any Russian individuals identified by the UK government. We have no trade relationships, or financial relationships with Russia or Belarus.

OpenView is a company based in the UK and privately owned in the UK .

Our thoughts and prayers are with the people of the Ukraine.
